

Knopik Varner Moore

Trial Attorneys

Charles T. Moore

Charles T. Moore is a member of KNOPIKVARNERMOORE, a small firm of trial lawyers in Tampa, Florida. He is experienced in medical malpractice litigation, personal injury litigation, product liability litigation, and commercial litigation in state and federal courts.

Mr. Moore graduated from the University of Florida Law School with honors and was admitted to the Bar in the State of Florida and the U.S. District Court for the Northern, Middle, and Southern Districts of Florida.

He is a member of the Hillsborough County and American (Member Litigation Section) Bar Associations, the Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers, and the Association of Trial Lawyers of America. He is also a member of the Tampa Bay Inn of Courts.

Mr. Moore is the co-author of the Chapter on “Damages in Medical Negligence Cases” in the Florida Medical Malpractice Handbook (2006). He is also the co-author of “Bad Faith and the Economic Loss Rule: The Thin Grey Line,” which appeared in the International Insurance Law Review, May 1998. He authored “Does the New 57.105 Pack More Punch?”, which appeared in the Hillsborough County Lawyer, December 2003. Mr. Moore speaks frequently with trial lawyers and health care provider groups concerning medical negligence issues.

Mr. Moore is a member of Leadership Tampa Bay, class of 2002 and has served the Guardian ad Litem program in the 4th and 8th Judicial Circuits. He is the recipient of the Perry Vloedman Public Service Award for his service to the 8th Judicial Circuit Guardian ad Litem program. Mr. Moore was named one of the 2007 Florida Super Lawyers, an honor bestowed by Florida Super Lawyers magazine recognizing the top 5% of attorneys in the state.

Mr. Moore is married to Beverly Addison, and they were recently blessed with the birth of their first child, Campbell.

“We become a part of our clients’ lives; their causes are our causes. That makes a difference.”

Charles T. Moore